

Basic Free Medical Clinic (BFMC)

ANWA's Basic Free Medical Clinic makes it possible to help the Nepali community by providing free basic medical care to the uninsured Nepali community and beyond.

Now Federal Employees, not only in the Metro Washington DC area, but all across the country, can give the clinic their support very easily. If you are a Federal employee, or have friends or neighbors who are, you can make it possible, too, by designating the Free Medical Clinic through the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC).

Our designation number is CFC #89887.

DONATE ONLINE

Go to the CFCNCA website to donate now. The CFC fundraising runs now through December, 2014.

With your donation to the CFC campaign through your office, funds will be provided directly to the Basic Free Medical clinic and be used to provide the much needed services to the expanding community and those who have no access to medical care.

Donations are made easy with the following options:

You can submit a pledge via

- Payroll deduction
- Cash
- Check
- Credit or debit card
- Or e-check/ACH.

Pledges may be processed online or by completing a paper pledge form provided by a CFC Keyworker in your office.

If you are not a Federal employee, but have friends or neighbors who are, please let them know about the clinic and the CFC number. With our support in this easy manner, the clinic can thrive, meet its expenses, and expand its services.

For more information, go to the website at ANWA-DC.org. On the menu bar at the top right, click to see the Clinic information page and a description of its services. There you will see a link to the ANWA-BFMC Brochure.
